7. RURAL WEST WARD and WARD COMMITTEE FUNDING

No Ward Councillor present.

Cllrs Whitfield and Bowen had attended the Ward Team Meeting.

The police report an increase in thefts in Poppleton and around Askham Bryan College, although in general burglaries and drug related incidents in the Ward are fewer.

There have been 18 suggestions from Poppleton for ward funded schemes, but only 5 from Copmanthorpe (3 of which were from one individual).

8. LOCALISM IN ACTION CONFERENCE

This was attended by approx. 100 people from Councils all over the country. Those who attended from Copmanthorpe felt that, whilst the opening remarks were interesting, the workshops were not very productive. There were, however, some interesting exhibitors.

NALC are developing some online training for new Councillors, and would also like to see some incentive for Councils to become Quality Councils.

It believes that Town and Parish Councils have an important role to play in the Government's "Big Society".

9. DENTAL SURGERY
